

Rescue Me Gala Helps Dogs and Cats

Washington Animal Rescue League's Rescue Me Gala raises money for sick or injured dogs.

Posted: March 26, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

The Rescue Me Gala, which is the most important fundraising event each year for the Washington Animal Rescue League, takes place April 21 at the Ritz-Carlton hotel in Washington, D.C.

Proceeds support the Love Fund, which provides medical care for seriously sick and injured dogs and cats who are either in shelters or live with low-income owners who cannot afford the costs of medical care.

Tickets for the black tie dinner, dancing and auction event are $350 each. The event is open to anyone, but dogs and cats aren't allowed at the event.

The Rescue Me Gala is Sat., April 21, 7:30 p.m. at the Ritz-Carlton hotel, 22 & M Streets, NW, Washington, DC.

For more information, call the Washington Animal Rescue League at (202) 723-0038 or visit the rescue league's website: <http://www.warl.org/index.php>.