

American Pit Bull Terrier Overview

Is this playful breed for you?

1. The APBT person has carefully considered all of the pros and cons of APBT ownership and is sure that he can raise his dog to be a model canine citizen.
2. The APBT person has time to exercise, care for and train his dog, and can provide ample accommodations.
3. The APBT person is a responsible dog owner and wants an APBT for the right reasons not for protection, aggression or fighting. He will train his dog reliably and promote the positive qualities of the breed.
4. The APBT person makes certain that his dog is safe at all times.

Return to the American Pit Bull Terrier Breed Profile

Reprinted from Breeders Best: American Pit Bull Terrier © 2004. Permission granted by Kennel Club Books, an imprint of BowTie Press.