

Weimaraner Overview

Ideas to keep in mind before adopting your Weimaraner puppy.

1. The Weimaraner person is ready and able to establish himself as leader of the intelligent and sensitive Weimaraner.
2. The Weimaraner person has time to exercise and care for the dog and can provide ample accommodations both inside and outside the home.
3. The Weimaraner person is responsible and available, for this breed is highly devoted and will not be happy unless it can spend most of its time with its owners.
4. The Weimaraner person makes certain that his dog is safe at all times, taking into consideration that the breeds hunting instincts may incite it to follow its nose.

Return to the Weimaraner Breed Profile

Reprinted from Breeder's Best: Weimaraner © 2004 Permission granted by Kennel Club Books, an imprint of BowTie Press.